One More Extra Vote Offer to Be Allowed; Closing Date of New Offer Wednesday, Mar. 23

The bonus offer, the largest extra vote offer to be allowed during the News subscription campaign, closed Saturday night. Many of the candidates have already taken advantage of this huge offer, and did their very best to secure as many of the extra votes as they could, although none of them were able to get enough votes to pull away from the rest of the field. The final outcome of Saturday's work finds the race tighter than before for all candidates realized that if they did not do their best someone would get ahead of them. All are working hard and diligently to keep up in the race.

With the close of the bonus offer comes the opening of the club offer. While not near so large as the bonus offer, still it will do much toward winning the prize Vello or Ford. The club offer, which will run to the 1st of April, will count over 5,000 votes on the regular vote schedule 5,000 extra votes on each day, insured by any candidate. There is no limit to this offer. It is in every respect just like the one closed with the exception of being only one-half the size and extending one-half the time over which it will run.

Take full advantage of the bonus offer while it was in force and did not do as well as you think that you should have done on this offer, see to it that you do not fall short on the club offer, the last of the extra votes will have no effect. This offer will be absolutely the best of the extra votes allowed and the close of this offer there will be no more votes. After Wednesday, March 23rd, the only votes that are may get on such subscription are the ones that go with the regular vote schedule. If you are ambitious and want to win this handsome prize see to it that you do not fall down now at the critical moment, that is just what this is—the critical time. If you are a diligent worker and are fully back your best you will at once realize the importance of securing as many of these last extra votes as you possibly can. The one that does back on the bright side of this last offer will do much toward the winning of the prize automobile.

Remember that after the close of the club offer on March 23rd, you will not be allowed to get any more votes. Just the votes on the regular vote schedule will be given. Also remember that there is no limit to the number

Leading Hotels of the East Coast of the Great Winter Playground of the World

Visitors Coming to the East Coast of Florida May Be Assured of Good Service and Reasonable Charges at the Hotels Listed in These Columns

HOTEL CLARENDON

Social life has been in full action at the Hotel Clarendon during the past few days and for the ensuing week. Saturday evening's ball was one of the largest attended of the regular weekly events of the season. The Lotus Grill was filled with diners, who remained for the ball and many very enjoyable dinner parties were given by popular hostesses of the three cities. Mrs. L. D. Compton, who is a season guest at the Clarendon, gave a large dinner party to friends, who later enjoyed the dances.

This week on Thursday evening St. Patrick will vie with George Washington as to which holds first place in the hearts of the social set. The Washington party on the 22d was a brilliant affair and the party to be given on St. Patrick's day promises to be equally as well attended and to be as enjoyable in every way. Many of those who are interested in the social life of the Triple Cities and yet have not attended any of the big balls at the Clarendon are looking forward to this ball, which will be the last special one of the season. The decorations will be fitting to the occasion and "St. Patrick's Green" will be everywhere in evidence. The music will be of the best and the affair will be one of the pleasures of the winter.

All the guests at the Hotel Clarendon are interested in the "Clarendon Polles" and minstrel performance to be given tomorrow evening at the Auditorium by the employees of the hotel. The performance is being directed by George E. Keegan, who has had a good deal of experience along this line of work and who comes from a family that was interested in dramatic art in an active way. In the minstrel performance Dan O'Keefe, Frank Riley, Herbert Marsten, Hugh Haley and James Kelly will take the end men's parts and those who have witnessed the rehearsals say there will be some side splitting jokes told by them.

In the grand patriotic finale at the close of the first part Miss Katherine Conner will be the Goddess of Liberty and she makes a very pretty one. The parrot sketch will be given by Misses Betty Garway, Marguerite Saretts, Betty Olson, Gertrude Hallam and Rose Koefie, Herbert Marsten will lead the Blue Skies, which is said to be extremely funny. Frank Weisberg will render a zitherphone solo; Miss Betty Olson, vocal solos, and George Keegan will do some artistic dancing and will also sing. It is sure to be an evening filled with fun and laughter.

Mrs. T. N. Twells of Philadelphia; Fred R. and Fred B. Reck of New York; Charles H. Whiting and Miss Ethel M. Whiting of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Denoeck and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bever and Jim Bever of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; T. S. Griswold of Batavia, N. Y.; were luncheon guests at the Hotel Clarendon on Sunday.

Among the recent guests registered at the Hotel Clarendon are the following:

William A. Winston, L. S. Auberg, Carlstrom Field; Mr. and Mrs. Isaac A. McLean; Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Dutton of Boston; Mrs. Walter H. Pennell, Cambridge, Mass.; Sumner M. Kirby, Wilkes Barre, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. West, Glenn Falls, N. Y.; Mrs. John W. Shank, Mrs. S. B. Drake, Grand Rapids, Mich.

HOTEL DESPLAND

Among the very charming and interesting guests at the Despland is Mrs. E. N. Hunting of Pittsburgh, Pa. With her husband she arrived in Daytona early in February and together they enjoyed some time at the Despland, but he has been called home by business matters and Mrs. Hunting will remain for several days longer.

Mrs. Hunting is a singer of considerable note and has done a great deal of concert work. She has a beautiful soprano voice, and on Friday morning at 10 o'clock has very graciously consented to sing at the morning musicale of the Palm Beach Club.

This is Mrs. Hunting's second season in Daytona, and she expresses herself as thoroughly pleased with the climate, the hotel of her choice, and the people with whom she has come in contact. Since she has been in Daytona this season she has, on several occasions, sung in the Episcopal church, but when in her home city she is the soprano soloist in the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mrs. Hunting expressed great regret at the physical condition of Enrico Caruso and said that though he might in a way recover his physical strength she did not think he would ever again be able to sing. She said it meant a great loss to the musical world and a loss that would be felt for many years.

During her two winters in Daytona Mrs. Hunting has made many friends who will hope that each season will bring her return.

The Sunday evening concert at the Despland was a very enjoyable affair and was given by the hotel orchestra under the direction of Harry Ditch. The following numbers were given and each was heartily enjoyed: March—State Fencibles..... Sousa Overture..... Balfe
